The Moremi Game Reserve offers exciting game viewing. Herds of buffalo and elephant, the shy lechwe, wild dog and cheetah make their home in this tranquil and unspoiled area. At its best Xakanaxa offers all the major predators and antelope, as well as impressive herds of elephant and buffalo. This reserve rates as one of the most beautiful in southern Africa and both game and birds are diverse and plentiful.

Your private tented camp situated in the Xakanaxa area of the Reserve, awaits you with tea, coffee, snacks and a well-stocked bar. Having settled into your spacious, insect-proof tent, enjoy lunch. Take your first game drive before returning to camp for dinner and to relax around the campfire and listen to the sounds of the African night.

Day 02 & 03 – Moremi Game Reserve Two days of game viewing and activities by vehicle in Moremi Game Reserve.

Day 04 – Khwai Concession Today we move our mobile tented camp to the Khwai concession.

We experience a boat day trip on the Okavango Delta from Xakanaxa, with a picnic lunch on an island. The great inland delta is one of the unique natural areas of Africa. Here the Okavango River spreads out through a sea of papyrus reeds. The water is crystal clear and flows through channels covered with water lilies. The fish eagle is prevalent in the area, as are a wide variety of herons and other water birds.

We arrive late afternoon to the newly set up Khwai Mobile Camp.

The Acacia and Leadwood lined Khwai River itself is the sole source of water for miles around, and is frequented by a spectacular array of game. This is the raptor capital of Botswana: bateleur, tawny, martial and brown snake eagles line the river bank alongside lanner falcons, not only to drink in this isolated stretch of water, but also to feed on the millions of quilea which flock to the river to quench their thirst. Lion, leopard, cheetah, wild dog and hyena are commonly sighted at Khwai.

Day 05 & 06 – Khwai Concession Your days will be busy with morning, afternoon and night drives as well as the thrill of walking with an armed guide.
